• ¡OJO! PLAGIARISM WILL EARN A FAILING GRADE FOR THE COURSE AND CAN RESULT IN SUSPENSION FROM ENTIRE UPR SYSTEM.

Please remember that if you copy any writing off the internet, you need to cite it “in quotes” and state which website it came from. Even if you paraphrase (summarize) or put another writer’s ideas into your own words, you need to write, as NAME the AUTHOR states, or I agree/disagree with NAME of AUTHOR, or in parenthesis after the sentence (NAME of AUTHOR) or footnote the author and website.

I grade according to your ability, so no matter what your comfort level is with writing in English, you are better off submitting your own work, even with errors! Please ask if you need a deadline extension...I am flexible with deadlines to a degree.

Plagiarism Statement from English Department website:

Plagiarism is the use of another person's ideas or experience in your writing without acknowledging the source. Other forms include repeating another's particular apt phrase without appropriate acknowledgement, paraphrasing someone else's argument as your own, introducing another's line of thinking as your own development of an idea, and failing to cite the source for a borrowed thesis or approach (The MLA Style Manual). Plagiarism may be punished by failure in a course as well as by suspension or dismissal from the English Graduate Program and the entire University.
